To Have Fast Cruisers

Washington—President Wilson, Secretary Daniels and Chairman Padgett, of the House committee on naval affairs, at a conference today decided to include fast battle cruisers in the plan for naval development.

Restore Sugar Duty

Honolulu—According to a despatch published in Los Angeles, President Wilson will revise the tariff upward at the coming session of Congress, restoring the duty on sugar and also the duty on raw wool.

Would Honor Riley

Washington—Secretary Lane suggests that poems by James Whitcomb Riley be read in all schools in America on October 7, the birthday of the famous poet.

A Fugitive Is Caught

Los Angeles—Matthew Schmidt, who was run down after a long chase, was put on trial today, charged with complicity in the Los Angeles Times explosion case of some years ago. Coplan, who is a co-defendant, will be given separate trial.

British Monitors Damaged

Berlin—Two British monitors have been damaged off Depaunne by German aviators.

The Loan Is Raised

New York—J. P. Morgan & Co., heading the big loan for the Allies announced today that no subscriptions will be received after this date. It is believed that the loan has been successfully negotiated.

John D. Rockefeller is reported to have taken $10,000,000 of the bonds.

On The West Front

Paris—The Allies continue to make progress in battles north of Arras. Fighting at Nouron Guenneviers is now violent between trenches, each side trying to win the trenches of the other.

Behind the German lines in front of Metz a squadron of Allied airmen are operating, according to announcements today.

Bulgaria Army Concentrating

The concentration of the Bulgarian army in readiness for an outbreak of war has begun. According to an Athens despatch to the Havas News Agency, a total of 350,000 soldiers are gathering at concentration points.

Greece No Longer Doubtful

Athens—All doubt that Greece will enter the war on the side of the Allies was dispelled today by two significant circumstances, the principal one being that the French have landed troops at Salonica for the purpose of assisting Greece in repelling an invasion by Bulgaria.

Recent war moves in Bulgaria are interrupted to imperil Grecian interests. Secondly, the Grecian government has seized Macedonian railroads, three of which lead to Bulgaria.

That Describes the New Silks

They are wonderfully well adapted to the new season's fashion in dresses, being sufficiently stiff to use for wide skirts, yet soft enough to drape most carefully. Here are taffetas, poplins, failles and other silks in plain colors and plaid effects designed particularly for use in combination with woolen fabrics. Here are also rich and elegant silks, woven especially for more elaborate dresses and evening costumes.

No lead-weighted "tender" silks in this stock! All are new, fresh and of the most dependable qualities. Prices assure full value for what you spend!

40" Silk Poplin in all colors a splendid quality at $1.50 per yard.

Novelty silks in a large variety of patterns and styles.

40" Crepe de Chine, in all colors, shirt-waist stripes and Fancy Plaids, $1.65 and $2.00 per yard.

30" and 36" Chiffon Taffeta in Dresden patterns 90c. $1.25--$1.75.

36" Plaid Taffetas, all new, at $1.75.

DICK OLIVER, Manager

FRANK L. POLK, PICKED TO TAKE PLACE VACATED BY ROBERT LANSING WHEN HE BECAME SECRETARY OF STATE.

Frank L. Polk, an accomplished lawyer who stands high in the esteem of President Wilson, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and Secretary of State Lansing, has been picked by the last named to fill the position of Counselor of the State Department.

Mr. Polk is at present the Corporation Counsel of his native city, New York. He is the son of Dr. William Macklenburg Polk, dean of the Cornell Medical School, the grandson of the Confederate Bishop-General Leonidas Polk and the grandnephew of President James K. Polk. He was born in 1871 and was graduated from Yale in 1894. He studied law at Columbia Law School and was graduated from there in 1897. In 1898 he went to the Spanish War with Troop A and became Assistant Quartermaster under Gen. Ernst with the rank of Captain. In 1908 he married Miss Elizabeth Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Potter, of Philadelphia. They have three children.

Mr. Polk was treasurer of the bureau of Municipal Research during the Mayor McClelland's administration and a member of the Thomas Mott Osborne Democratic League in the early days of the Dix campaign. In January, 1914, he was appointed Corporation Counsel of New York by Mayor Mitchel, his close friend. He was riding with Mayor Mitchel last year when a grievance-crazed man shot at the Mayor. The bullet missed its mark and struck Mr. Polk in the left cheek.
